

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ClearVision Joins Forces with Sales and Marketing Executive MB Deans to Penetrate the Mid-Sized Market

Alameda, CA – April 8, 2013 – ClearVision Consulting, Inc, a global consulting firm and creator of Upward Insights™ for Leaders and Successful Business Partnering, announced today that it is collaborating with Sales and Marketing Executive MB Deans to expand its outreach aimed at medium-sized businesses. According to ClearVision's President Kathy Hart, Ed.D., "This is a market where leaders are constantly under fire and need to drive their companies to achieve unprecedented innovation and sustainable change." The uniting of strengths to target this market came out of a long-standing personal and professional relationship between Ms. Deans and Dr. Hart. Both are passionately committed to working with leaders that want to leverage the human potential opportunities of their organizations and foster continual organizational improvement and excellence.

Ms Deans brings more than 25 years of success launching, growing and transforming management consulting firms in a variety of industries. Before joining ClearVision Consulting, Ms. Deans was Managing Partner of Douglas Partners, a boutique consultancy specializing in process improvement and learning and development.

Dr. Hart, a former internal consultant with over 28 years of experience, founded ClearVision in 2005 with the focus of aligning people, processes, structures and systems to promote individual and organizational change. ClearVision Consulting specializes in accelerating organizational excellence and improving human performance. ClearVision works with clients across a range of industries, focusing on executives and leaders in medium-sized to Fortune 1,000 corporate environments. The firm gives back to the community by working pro bono with a select group of community-based non-profit organizations, helping them to advance their inner excellence and elevate their ability to affect change.

Contact:

Kathy Hart, Ed.D.
President, ClearVision Consulting, Inc.
1501 Eighth St.
Alameda CA 94501
510. 814.6256

END

